HANDWRITTEN STATEMENT HANDED TO CREAMER BY URELLA

On Sunday, November 19, 1972, Guyette rented a room, 182, under a false name. He called Kardash and said, "I got a room where we can watch them better." On November 20, 21, 22, Kardash and Guyette were in Room 182 watching the Crime Commission personnel when they went to work and came back. Kardash and Guyette decided on a whim that it would be better if we had the phones wired. Kardash had the wire from a phone truck a few years ago and also a head set. Kardash and Guyette tried to make the hook-up on Thursday when the Crime Commission men were off duty. The wire was pushed through the fire wall toward Room 175. No messages were obtained because Rooms 213 and 214 were unoccupied at this time.

On Sunday, November 26, 1972, Guyette ~~entered~~ <sup>was RENTED</sup> Room 175 under a false name. On Monday through prior arrangements, Luchansky and Guyette went into Room 175 around 12 noon. At approximately 2:30 pm on Monday, Guyette finished the hook-up and tried the headset, but it didn't work again. Luchansky stuck his head up through the access panel and saw the maintenance man and jumped down. Luchansky and Guyette left around 6:00 pm on Monday night. Guyette called Kardash and told him we would meet him in the Plaza parking lot at 7:00 am near Gaudio's. We met on Tuesday at 7:00 am and then Kardash went over to the motel. Kardash parked the Buick on the far side of the motel. And we went into Room 175. We figured something was wrong because the match cover was missing from the door on Room 175 that Guyette put in on Monday when they left. After trying the line with their headset, it was still dead. We figured to get out. This was around 12 noon. Just as we were about to leave, two calls came to the room saying to get out. Kardash took the calls and didn't know where they came from. After leaving the room, Guyette returned and got his glasses. No one knew who had the keys, so we walked over to Guyette's car in the plaza parking lot.

We figured something was wrong because the manager seemed to be following us. We decided to return for the Buick and Luchansky tried to get the car without being noticed, but was spotted.

At no time during the days that we were at the motel, no messages were overheard because the line didn't work.

No one ordered us to tap any wires and absolutely the Commissioner had no knowledge of this. He knew we were working in this area because he had assigned us to conduct an investigation on the activities of Timmy Mastrangelo, a gambler in Chester County, to check on the activities of Cpt. McFadden on abuse of sick leave, and also a report that Crime Commission men were getting drunk at the Springfield Inn in Delaware County and the Hotel Hilton in King of Prussia.

ON SUNDAY NOV 19, 1972 GUYETTE RENTED A ROOM 182 UNDER A FALSE NAME. HE CALLED KENNETH SAID I GOT A ROOM WHEN WE CAN CATCH THEM BETTER. ON NOV 20-21-22. KENNETH & GUYETTE WERE IN RA 182 WATCHING THE COINTELEPHONE PERSONNEL WHEN THEY WENT TO WORK & CALLED BACK. KENNETH & GUYETTE DECIDED ON A WING THAT IT WOULD BE BETTER IF WE HAD THE PHONES WIRED. KENNETH HAD THE WIRE FROM HENRICH TRUCK. A FEW YEARS AGO & ALSO A HEADSET. KENNETH & GUYETTE WENT TO MAKE THE HOOKUP ON THURSDAY WHEN THE COINTELEPHONE MEN WERE OFF DUTY. THE WIRE WAS PUSHED THROUGH THE FLOOR WALL TOWARD ROOM 175. NO MESSAGES WERE OBTAINED BECAUSE RA'S 213 & 214. WERE OCCUPIED AT THIS TIME.

ON SUNDAY 26, 1972, GUYETTE RENTED RM 175 UNDER A FALSE NAME. ON MONDAY, THROUGH REW ARRANGEMENTS LUTHERSING & GUYETTE WENT TO RM 175 AT MEADOW 12 NOW. AT APPROXIMATELY 2:30 PM ON MONDAY, GUYETTE FINISHED THE WORK P. & TOLD THE HEADSET, BUT IT DROPPED WIRE. LUTHERSING STUCK HIS HEADSET UP AGAINST THE ACCESS PANEL & SAW THE MAINTENANCE MAN AND TURNED DOWN. LUTHERSING & GUYETTE LEFT AROUND 6 PM. ON MONDAY NIGHT GUYETTE CALLED KENNETH & TOLD HIM THAT WE WOULD MEET AT THE PLAZA PARKING LOT AT 7:00 AM WEEK. KENNETH MET ON TUESDAY AT 7 AM & WITH KENNETH.

After trying the line with the headset, it was still dead, we figured to get out. This was around 12 noon. Just as we were about to leave, two calls came to the room, saying to get out. Karel Dash took the calls and didn't know where they came from. After leaving the room, Guyette returned & got his glasses. No one knew who had the keys. So we walked over to Guyette's car in the Plaza parking lot. We figured something was wrong, because the manager seemed to be following us. We decided to return for the Ribick and Luchansky tried to get the car without being noticed, but was spotted. At no time during the days that we were at the motel, no messages were overheard because the line didn't work.

No one ordered us to stop any wires. Absolutely the Commission had no knowledge of this. He knew we were working in this area because he had assigned us to conduct investigations on the activities of Tanya Mastarangelo, a graduate in Chester County - to check on the activities of Capt. MacFadden on a base of sick leaves. - And also a report that certain Commission men were getting drunk in the Springfield Inn in Delaware County. And the Hotel Milton in King of Prussia.
