Experience is the key ...

to effective leadership. Citizens must see its government from many sides to achieve understanding of what it is and how it functions. Helen D. Gillette has this overall picture. She knows government at all levels. She has accumulated knowledge of government, beginning as a local elected official, and presently serving in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives.

During the past twelve years in Harrisburg, Helen D. Gillette has used this experience to establish herself as a most effective leader for the 31st Legislative District. She has worked diligently to accomplish much in the needs of all people.

She is concerned about people. She has the rare ability to bring together ideas and thoughts that work in the best interest of the people of Pennsylvania. She is aware that the value of her actions is measured by serving her people.

Helen D. Gillette works for a purpose ...

the people of this state. Helen and her husband Michael reside in Natrona Heights, Pennsylvania. They are the parents of three children, Michael, Jr., Georgia and Rebecca.
