Dear David and Janet:

I sure hope that your day in Harrisburg was as pleasurable as it was for us to host you.

Enclosed are copies of the remarks made by the Speaker of House that day. I thought you might enjoy having this.

Again, it was certainly a treat having you here.

Sincerely,

Kenneth E. Brandt

of 2 acres or more.

Mr. PRESTON. Can you give me an idea of what the fiscal 130 cost to the Liquor Control Board would be on an amendment 131
for this for enforcement? 132

Mr. WILSON. I heard the first part, Mr. Speaker, about the 134 fiscal costs to the Liquor Control Board, but I did not get 135
the last, if you could say it again.

Mr. PRESTON. For enforcement of your amendment? 137

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield for a moment? 139

! [AWELCOME!] A 141

The SPEAKER. The Chair understands that we have a very 143 special family here with us, and the members ought to pay 144 attention to this. We complained a great deal about the fact 145
that our members and our families back home and our 146
constituents do not know what we are doing and are not 147 interested. A church in Mr. Brandt's Lancaster County 148 auctioned off a visit to Harrisburg to the legislature, and 149 believe it or not, there were families who made bids to come 150 here. The family that succeeded is from Lancaster County, 151
Mr. and Mrs. David Nauman, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Nauman, Michael 152
Nauman, and Michael Smoyer, and they are here as the guests 153
of Representative Brandt, and the House should welcome them. 154
To the Nauman family, it is refreshing for us to find a 156 family of constituents, not just interested in what we are 157
doing, but willing to pay to come here to see what we are 158 doing. We hope we are doing the right thing. Thank you for 159 coming.

! [ACONSIDERATION OF XXXXXXXX CONTINUED!] A 161

The SPEAKER. The gentleman, Mr. Preston, may continue. 164
