REPRESENTATIVE 98TH DISTRICT
R. D. #1
BAINBRIDGE, PA. 17502

THE
NINETY-EIGHTH LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT
OF PENNSYLVANIA

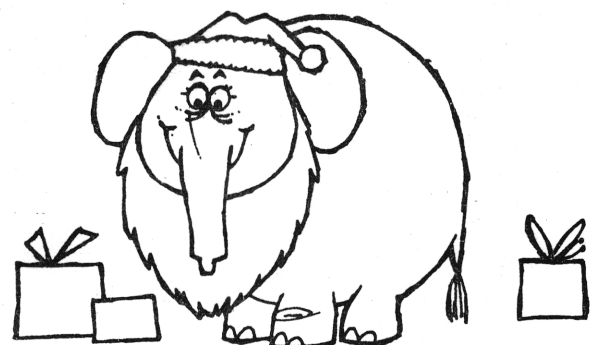

TO 98th DISTRICT COMMITTEE PEOPLE:

As the end of the first year of my term as your legislator approaches, I wish to thank everyone of you for the fine cooperation you have given me. Through the communications we have had this past year I feel that we have reached one of our objectives, namely, that you as members of the Republican Committee have become more aware of the operation of our state government. As we progress in the future, I will endeavor to continue this practice.

At a time when all levels of our government is being tested and the integrity of our elected officials is being questioned, I think it is a most important time that we as members of a political party, and certainly an integral part of our representative form of government, must speak out and show our thoughts and convictions on our type of government. Recently I ran across the following line that I think speaks very well on this point--"Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Simply live so no one will believe them."

As we approach the holiday season and the many festivities that we will be engaged in, let us take the time to stop and think of the many blessings we have as individuals as well as to take the time and appreciate and understand our fellowmen.

From my wife, Jean, and our family we wish to extend to you and yours the best of the holiday season.
