MEMO

TO: All House Members

FROM: Rep. Matthew Ryan

I just came across the enclosed description of our House mural, and thought you might find it interesting.

I suggest that you tape it to the inside of your desk tops, and during uninteresting debate, spend your time on more constructive pursuits.

 consider the years of many generations
 ask thy father and he will show thee
 thy elders and they will tell thee—

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
HARRISBURG

January 28, 1975

Honorable Guy A. Kistler
P.O. Box 31

Mr. Kistler:

Your role in helping an assortment of high-powered influences keep Mr. Fineman in the political brokerage business is hereby noted.

I want you to know that I wound up having to defend you against great exaggerations made by some of my colleagues as they speculated on what-it-was-that-Herb-did-to-get-Kistler. I forcefully made the point that Herb is a sharp dealer and probably got you just because you're a hell of a swell guy.

Actually, some of us newer members caught the humorous aspect of your valiant stand. So very often, you have ridiculed others for "deviating" from Party policy and principle -- with you, of course, making up your own lengthy descriptions of the policy and principle we were supposed to follow.

I just want you to know that we all understand you fully.

Frank A. Salvatore
Representative 170th District

P.S. I didn't have time to defend you against the charge that you are a pompous ass. You might want to take that up in Caucus sometime.
