Dear Friend,

Recently one of my campaign volunteers contacted you concerning my candidacy for the House of Representatives. I appreciate your support, and I want to thank you in advance for voting for me on April 10 at the Primary Election. Your support is critical if we are to be successful on election day. Therefore, I hope the information I am enclosing with this personal letter will be helpful to you as election day approaches. You may want to share it with your family and friends.

It is essential to our success for every Republican in the Hanover area to cast a vote on April 10. My friends and neighbors in this area have always been very supportive, and to know that I have your continuing confidence is very gratifying.

Again, I want to thank you for all of your efforts on my behalf between now and April 10 and to thank you for casting a vote for my candidacy.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

It has been an honor to serve as your State Representative. In order to continue the kind of service and representation you deserve, I need your help. Election day, November 6, is almost here. I respectfully ask that you go to the polls and support my candidacy. Additionally, I request your support by talking to your friends and neighbors on my behalf.

As each Legislative Session begins, I try to determine what are the most important issues facing our District and Pennsylvania. For example, it was fairly clear that the economy was of primary concern to all of us as we began the current two year Session. Since small business is what creates most of the jobs in our area, and will be increasingly important for all of Pennsylvania, I have worked to continue to improve Pennsylvania as a place where small business can begin and grow and create new jobs. The results: Pennsylvania has been named number one in the Nation in State Government encouragement for small business and your Representative was named as National Advocate of the Year for Small Business by the U.S. Small Business Administration. This is a record of achievement on which I hope to build, continuing efforts in important areas on which we are already focusing and choosing new issues of critical importance to Pennsylvanians and our District.

Additionally, I deem it of vital importance to keep in close touch with you. Thus, I continue to be available to meet with you and communicate through my newsletter, the DORRBELL. It is you, the people of the 193rd District that I represent and whose problems with State Government I must try to solve.

Your support in the past has been deeply appreciated. Please give me your help in the coming election. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Donald W. Dorr
