HARRISBURG, Jan. 5 -- State Rep. Tom Scrimenti, known for his strong support of senior citizen issues and commitment to the local community, today began his fourth term representing the 4th Legislative District as he was sworn into office in ceremonies at the state Capitol.

The Erie Democrat, who has served in the House since 1989, was sworn in by Fayette County Common Pleas Court Judge Gerald R. Solomon.

During the ceremonies, Scrimenti seconded the nomination of Rep. H. William DeWeese, D-Greene, to serve as House speaker.

The events marked the opening of the 177th session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly.
