Mr. Noble P. Martin

[REDACTED]
Corry, PA 16407

Dear Noble:

Congratulations on receiving the Eagle Scout Award.

Your hard work and dedication to the principals of scouting will be beneficial to you the rest of your life. Upon learning of your accomplishment, perspective employers will know that you can successfully complete a difficult task and that they can depend on you. But even more important is the practical experience you have gained in leadership. Communication, citizenship and those skills can be applied to any endeavor.

Our nation, and nations throughout the world, face many challenging problems, and solving those problems will require your knowledge and enthusiasm. My hope for you is that you will "be prepared" for that challenge by continuing your education. Understanding the complexities of our society is the key to finding the solutions. I also hope that you will seriously consider dedicating more of your time as a volunteer, or to an organization such as the Peace Corps. Like scouting, these types of activities build character and are responsible for producing some of our most outstanding leaders.

You may interested in knowing the names of other young men who have earned the Eagle award, which include Gerald Ford, Neil Armstrong, Steven Spielberg and Jay W. Marriott, Jr., just to name a few.

Again, congratulations, and best wishes for a successful future. Enclosed is an official citation from me in recognition of your achievement. I regret that I cannot present the citation personally, but I do hope I will have the opportunity to personally congratulate you at some later date.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Scrimenti
State Representative
