Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania is always proud to recognize those business entities which stand the test of time and continue to offer hospitality and quality service to customers throughout this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Curry's Spectacle Shop in Wesleyville is celebrating the momentous occasion of twenty-five years in business; and

Whereas, Owned and operated by Jim and Mary Ann Curry, with the help of their son Sean and their sister-in-law Ann Nye, Curry's Spectacle Shop began as a retail optical shop but is now a full-service operation. The shop is located in the Bank of Wesleyville building, one of the few historic buildings in the town, and offers high-quality eyeglasses, eye examinations and contact fittings. Curry's Spectacle Shop has deservedly earned the reputation for high quality service and a friendly atmosphere, and it will continue to offer its quality craft for many years to come.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates Curry's Spectacle Shop upon this special milestone in its proud history; affirmatively states that it has become a proud piece of this Commonwealth's history;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by the Honorable Thomas J. Scrimenti on September 5, 2003, be transmitted to Curry's Spectacle Shop, 3202 Buffalo Road, Erie, Pennsylvania 16510.

Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania is always pleased to recognize those exceptional individuals who, through their many achievements, bring great credit to themselves and this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, Jean Marie Theis is being honored as the 2003 Democratic Woman of the Year; and

Whereas, An outstanding member of her community, Ms. Theis worked at the City Hall Assessment Bureau and Addressograph and volunteered with the Dr. Gertrude Barber Center. She has been a member of the Democratic Women's Council for many years and is currently serving as an Executive Board member. Ms. Theis was also a Democratic Committeewoman for many years and is a past vice chair of the East County Democrats. Additionally, she has worked on numerous political campaigns and is a member of the Dr. Gertrude Barber Center Auxiliary, Saint Benedict's Alumnae and Saint James Senior Citizens.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania commends Jean Marie Theis upon her well-deserved distinction; offers warmest wishes for every future success and happiness;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by Representatives Thomas J. Scrimenti, Linda Bebko-Jones and Florindo J. Fabrizio on September 18, 2003, be transmitted to Jean Marie Theis.

Whereas, The House of Representatives of Pennsylvania is always pleased to acknowledge those entities which contribute to the well-being of their communities and ultimately to all the people of this great Commonwealth; and

Whereas, On November 7, 2003, Family Health Council, Inc., will host "Peer Power: Taking Care of Me in 2003" in conjunction with the Teen Peer Education Program; and

Whereas, This special conference will bring together teens and youth advocates from Erie County for candid discussions of the issues currently affecting the young people in our nation. Through workshops, assertiveness training and other strategies, the conference will strive to empower young people to make positive choices for their lives. "Peer Power: Taking Care of Me in 2003" is to be praised and commended for its efforts which benefit all of society.

Now therefore, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates Family Health Council, Inc., upon hosting this beneficial conference, which is planned and conducted by young citizens of this Commonwealth for the benefit of their peers; offers best wishes for a continued tradition of excellence in all future endeavors;

And directs that a copy of this citation, sponsored by Representatives Thomas J. Scrimenti, Linda Bebko-Jones, Florindo J. Fabrizio, John R. Evans and Matthew W. Good on October 31, 2003, be transmitted to Family Health Council, Inc.
