In 1986 - The General Assembly passed HB 141 sponsored by Rep. Joe Pitts and the Governor signed into law Act 186. This act basically prohibited practices of discrimination against no of support animals because of <sup>the</sup> phys. handicap of the user or because the user is a handler or trainer of support or guide animals.

I'm sure Rep. Pitts credits <sup>much</sup> the victory to M. Sean King and Shantik

"Paw" as per of the dog.

In Millie's <sup>heart warming</sup> book as dictated to Barbara Bush there are many stories - The one I like best was when the "Bushes" first met Millie & Mellic said it was love at 1st sight! But later on the plane ride home - Barb whispered to Millie - "you are so sweet but so ugly - you have a pig's nose."

When I read Shantik's letter in the Feb. 1991 issue of the Clapper, which was a message from the desk of the Pres. - I realized that the message is best said when it comes from the

You are bow-legged and your eyes are yellow" - ~~but~~ I knew then, sweet Mikes - I was just going to have to try harder" -

I believe this Memorial Kennel is the result of a lot of folks who "tried harder" - You had the right combination of experience, dedication + financial backing to make a dream come true.

I wish for you continued success as you reach out to others so that their life can be enriched with independence! You all deserve heart felt thanks because of are truly serving others!
