to the men + women of our armed forces -

Memorial Day - a day of remembrance a sad day - when service members give their lives in the line of duty

Armed Forces Day ✓ 1992 - a day to honor these service men + women with pride and appreciation -

Memorial Day - a special day of remembrance to honor those who paid the ultimate price in defense of freedom -

Armed Forces Day - 1992 theme

America's Military: Our Nation's Pride we pay tribute this year in a setting of worldwide economic challenges - political uncertainty and social unrest.

Our military remain ready to provide their services - ranging from fighting forest fire to supporting the war on drugs - providing disaster relief and protecting public safety as witnesses in ~~the~~ the recent Los Angeles riots

Their peace time record deserves our continued ~~pride~~ gratitude and reaffirms our pride. As more and more service personnel leave the service while our nation reshapes its military we'll see even more of their contributions to society.

Memorial Day 1992-a day of remembrance - a time of reflection - a time of honor - a time of renewal. On Memorial Day we renew our continuing responsibilities to our country - that being to make the sacrifice of brave men + women meaningful to every new generation of Americans - And so Memorial Day 1992 we honor those who have died for our future, our children and their children's future - that a then only can fallen will not have died in vain, if we honor them in deeds as well as words; if we shoulder the commitment for which they so dearly paid.

Memorial day - a time for remembrance to dedicate the time spent time to be proud to be an American
