

ELINOR Z. TAYLOR
ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Elinor Taylor says "It is important to me, to the constituents in the 156th district and to the future generations that we elect capable, caring, committed government officials".

With this thought in mind, she is announcing her candidacy for re-election to the Pennsylvania House of Representatives for the 156th District, composed of East Goshen Township, portions of West Goshen Township, West Whiteland Township and the Borough of West Chester. Elinor pledges to continue the high quality of constituent service and legislative representation which have been the hallmark of her political career.

Elinor Taylor believes "A vital component of my job as State Representative is serving and meeting constituent needs. My offices specialize in cutting red tape and providing a helping hand whenever possible." No problem is too small or too large to receive maximum effort to try and solve. As a member of the Leadership Team in the Republican Caucus, she is influential in setting the agenda and the voting schedule.

"Election 1998 will not be business as usual," Taylor said. "I will look to the future with innovative solutions to old, nagging problems and address vigorously new issues."

Taylor, an education professional, turns to the ABC's to express the core of her 1998 campaign.

A. Accountability in education - excellence in both public and private education

- Change in funding, charter schools, teacher strike control, updating of curriculum, early intervention programs, local control and flexibility and parental & community involvement.

B. Business in Pennsylvania - Small businesses are the backbone of Pennsylvania's economy.

- Reasonable tax structure, monitoring the expected jobs created by the Norwegian shipbuilding in redevelopment of the Philadelphia shipyard, continue to make Pennsylvania "Business Friendly".

C. Crime - 1st degree misdemeanor for unlawful contact with minors and for use of date rape drug Rohypnol, making neighborhoods safer, locking up criminals, supporting 3 strikes and you're out.

"I seek re-election to serve the people and communities of the 156th District", Taylor said, citing her involvement and accessible representation. Coupled with her experience, this enables her to get the job done when it comes to problems and difficulties facing her constituents.

Taylor is recognized in the legislature as a leader in educational and health & welfare issues. She was elected to a leadership position - Majority Caucus Secretary. Elinor Taylor became the first woman to be elected to Leadership in two consecutive sessions and is the only woman in leadership position in 1997.

Elinor Taylor is married to William M. Taylor and resides in West Goshen Township. She has a daughter - Barbara Zarrella of Bethlehem, Conn. and five grandchildren.

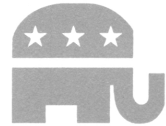

The legislative service and effective representation to which the 156th District has become accustomed to will continue as "I pledge to serve with honesty, integrity and commitment to task. My slogan - SHE CARES, LISTENS AND ACTS - is reflected in my daily efforts on behalf of my constituents."
